Ji-Jun's short story

This place...
How barren

That face ... again ...

I don't like here
I still remember that one day when I was in my elementary school
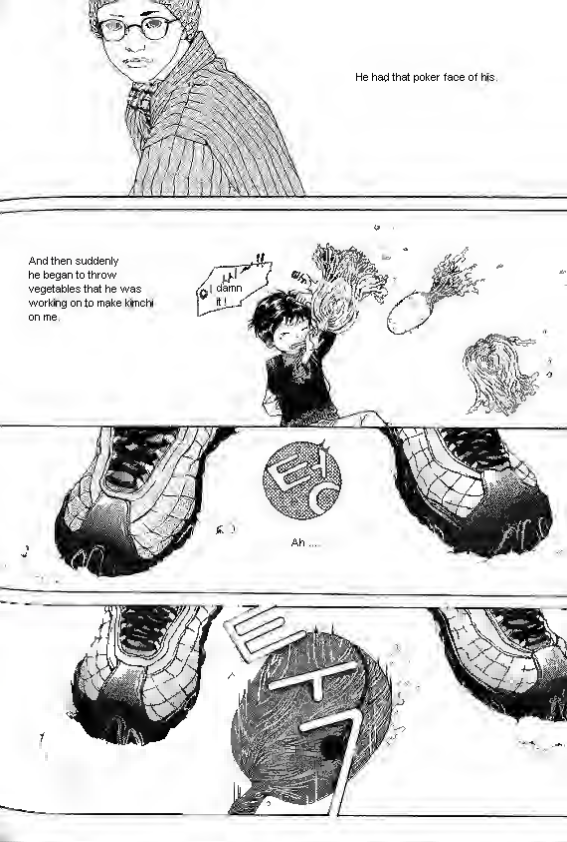
That sincere and/n yet cruel face..
One of my classmate made fun of the fact that I lived in a temple
So I had a big fight with the kid that day
Send me to an orphanage or something
I don't like this place!
They call me weirdo



He had that poker face of his.
And then suddenly he began to throw vegetables that he was working on to make kimchi on me.
!!
I damn it !
Ah ....

That hurt ...
Oh man ...
He could easily be expelled if they find out that he throws stuff at children
It's not just any stuff He just threw a wooden gong the holy item for monks Change your clothes and sit
I will let you leave this place
It was few days later
He brought a dog
JanimeS
www.janimes.com

Are you really not coming out ?
I see
I suppose the dog has to be returned then Dog ... ?
Hah

His name is Black
By the way, when should I send you to an orphanage?
I ain't going!
My dog ... Black
I loved him so much
I loved him so much that I wanted to give him everything everything I had

It s enteritis
He w ll d e
No life shall die
in this temple.
He w ll be taken away from th s place tomorrow
I begged him again and aga n
I told h m that it was all my fault and begged h m not to take the dog away

My child,

you know you are not allowed to

He pulled me back and his hug was so cold

And something was craved in my heart.

Since then ... I never cried in front of him.

Two days later Black was taken away, he died. It was also a rainy day.

It was the day I met Ain ...
He was my saver

My child...
Was it when I just entered elementary school ?

when you told me not to call you mom.
...Don't call me that way anymore. My name is Jun.
...Everyone I know calls me by my name.
That is what a name is for. If you don't use it, then there is no point in having it.

Sir...
Why is there so much anger in your young mind ?
You are a pure child Your anger in your mind is not yours It s easy to leave this place However
If you cannot overcome your anger, no matter where you go, you will not earn peace

Everything is pointless
There is nothing you can truly call yours in this world Unhappiness begin to form when you wish to possess something that is not yours
Learn to give up And then your anger and unhappiness will soon begin to disappear I must tell you that I wanted to have you near me....
I, too, wanted to have something that cannot be mine. I, too, have been foolish like you.
It has been 20 years since
I closed my door to outside.
And yet I still have not fully realized the true meaning of teachings.
... You must forgive me.

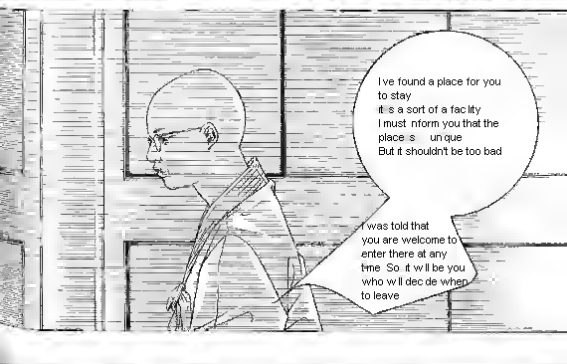
This place has always been cold.
So cold



I've found a place for you to stay
It's a sort of a facility I must inform you that the place is unique
But it shouldn't be too bad
I was told that you are welcome to enter there at any time So it will be you who will decide when to leave

I shall take my leave tomorrow
I expect you to make the contact with Yun Bodh sattva who is go ng to be support ng me
I pray you be well
I thank you for ra s ng me

Sir .....
I shall abandon only the saint
I w ll not abandon anyth ng else
If I ...ever gain anything ... whether it's money or fame ... or an ill pet ... friends ... women ... or even a family ....
and ch ldren ...

Dong Kang...
If I have to give up on mortal desires to be free of sins, I'd rather embrace the sins.
Sir... I am just an ordinary mortal. I have desires to have what is mine
I shall not abandon what is rightfully mine
The saint Yun Bodhisattva I shall only abandon him...

No I have abandoned the brief a long t me ago Desires didn't make me foolish. Being abandoned made me foolish

It's flying well.
Well, it's windy..... What was that paper though ?
I think it was my mother's photo ....
.... I see.
.....
What did you just say ? Your mother s photo ?
Maybe

I found it in his room
It was purely coincidence
But I think it's my mother's
The weirdthing's
I think I knew her

Although he does still bring some people over from time to time, he mostly hangs out in Kang De's room.

Those two seem to have a strange relationship...

If you ever bring people over Hyeong-In's room....

Ah, Ma...

As for Kang-De, he's currently off his part time job since the artist he's working for is taking a break.
So he's preparing for upcoming art contest.

Ji Jun's case he always complains about something as usual He always utters words and slacks most of time

He usually clicks a TV remote control vacantly

He has grown a new weird habit also

He tends to curse at a food program in every morning

God that @#$@#$

According to Engran he even sets an alarm clock just to wake up in order to watch the food program

I think he's nuts

I agree

I've come to make kimchi

And the weird girl I met in the forest occasionally comes to my room and fortifies my weakening mind

Uncle Peter ... earned a cold after trying to stare at a skeleton pyramid on a clear night ... of winter

Give me ... power of ... the sun..

Honestly, I cannot understand what part of him made my parents convinced.

Ah ... and about me

I am preparing for high school equivalency exams since it was my parents' wish Although studying is not my favorite thing to do
I feel free at least

And one more thing ...

Can I sleep here ?

Have you ever heard of "You suck" pointed at you ?
Well, I have. It was when I was in middle school. The guy was in the same class as me. I kind of liked him.
He was tall and handome and was an athlete. You know the type.
He said I was cold and selfish. "She sucks," he said with his friends behind my desk.
I still am not sure whether he did it to get along with his friends or that was how he really felt so.
What I liked him was about his sincerity. That made me think that appearance doesn't really have anything to do with decency.

He wasn't decent as he appeared and honestly I was a bitch back then.
Compared to him, Kang-De is in the safe zone.. He is a good guy.

Dangerous

Did you just smile ?!
Ma'am, please calm down.
I've had enough ! Is that how your parents educate you ?!
You've done bad enough to my daughter at school. Why did you provoke them on street ?!
Were you resentful that you were exiled from school?
It was result of your own deeds !
Ma'am -

There is no need to shout. Let's sit down and talk before making judgement.
Please sit.
Are you her guardian ? I want to talk to her parents.
Who are you to order me?!
Uncle,
Kang De ...
Are you his uncle? Please come here.

I understnad what you are say ng But what does them not go ng to school have to do anyth ng n th s case?
You know what I am talk ng about The soc ety assumes that those who don't go to school are trouble makers
The judges won't s dle with them I am sure you know that already t s a los ng battle
These children didn't quit their school because they were bad. It was their own choice.
And to overcome consequences of the r decision they've been work ng hard
Not everyone is suited for average school education. It's like some like spicy food and some don't. They are all working in their own way to step into the soc ety Educat on s a tool to bu ld one's personality and knowledge It s not a tool to judge people

We will settle
Sir
But sir
We will settle
Where are her parents ?
Finally someone who knows how it works
As you know we the police are busy with more important stuff We should be slowed down for something like this I apologize
Why ... ?
This is one of the mothers.
I am terribly...

Why are you sm l ng at me Why
I am sorry Doesn't he know how to frown at least?

Step 14
— Running away

I apolog ze
Only f I resisted my temper
Please forg ve me
No, this is entirely my fault.
After all, you left me in charge of your daughter...
I ... will make sure this won't happen again.
I am taking her home S r

Th s s the end of her sweet dream
You may not understand because you've stayed n a fore gn country for a long t me
But there are f xed nv sible pathes for everyone n Korea At 17 years old they have to be n school
And by 20 they have to be n either a college or an un versity
After that they have to jo n the soc ety
After seeing my daughter brightened up a bit, I thought that it might work ...
But this is it.
If she resists, I will have to force her.
I w ll go Hyeong-In

Sorry
I will go home
For a little while
I had thought that I was special
But it turns out that I don't have any idea what I wanted to be or do Actually, I am now well I'd like to go on without goals or anything
I will go home

I know how much effort you've put into your comic I know you drew your dream on papers
And yet I got you involved in this mess
I am really sorry
Sorry for not knowing how to dream Sorry for being my foolish self Sorry for having no courage
I am sorry
